Practically Blind in One Eye and Affected With Heart Trouble.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 21.
Colonel William F. Stewart, of the Coast Artillery, whose case, because of its detail to the ungarrisoned post at Fort Grant, Ariz., has been before the public for some time, has been ordered to appear before a retiring board at Washington, D. C., where he will be

This action by Secretary Wright today is the outcome of the physical examination of Colonel Stewart by an officer at Fort Huachuca, Ariz., whom he appeared recently at that post for the purpose of taking the test ride of ninety miles directed by President Roosevelt. That board reported that the colonel was practically blind in one eye, and that because of this and the additional fact that he had heart trouble, he was disabled for military service. Privilege to take the ride was denied Colonel Stoen.

Colonel Stewart, the examining board in its report declaring that to so would endanger his life. Brigadier-General W. P. Hall is president of the examining and retiring board at Washington, which will take up the case. Its functions will be to ascertain formally the facts and make a

Colonel Stewart's "exile" to Fort Randall dates back a year. Before being sent there, however, he was given an opportunity while at Fort Barrancus, La., to retire but to the effect that

Stewart replied: "If appointed brigadier-general I will retire; if not, I will remain on duty." The department's intentions regarding Colonel Stewart at the time were to send him to Fort Grant, without command, until he reached the minimum age of sixty-two, permitting of

When information was sought through the War Department as to the basis for the compulsory retirement by the President after forty years' service, the only comment was that the retirement was "temporarily impossible." Cogan

LAST April the friends of Colonel Stewart obtained an order directing that he be abandoned St. Francis barracks, St. Augustine, Fla. for the time being, as he did not get along well with superordinates.

acted to serve—three years or more—on the active list, but two weeks later, in the order to this effect was countersigned by the President.

Last spring the case of Colonel Stevenson was discussed with much warmth in the Senate. On two occasions Senator Rayner, of Maryland, criticized the
